Enbridge Inc. and ExxonMobil Pipeline Company solicit shipper commitments for proposed Texas Access crude oil pipeline

CALGARY, ALBERTA and HOUSTON – Dec. 19, 2007 - Enbridge Inc. (TSX:ENB) (NYSE:ENB) and ExxonMobil Pipeline Company (Exxon Mobil Corporation NYSE:XOM) today announced the two companies will conduct a Solicitation for Binding Shipper Commitment (Commitment Solicitation) for a proposed new pipeline system, to transport crude oil from Patoka, Illinois, to the Texas Gulf Coast. The new pipeline, called "Texas Access Pipeline," would transport crude oil sourced from the Canadian oil sands region in Alberta and from the upper U.S. Midwest to refiners in the Nederland and Houston, Texas, areas.

The proposed project comprises a new 768-mile, 30-inch diameter pipeline, which would transport crude oil from Patoka, Illinois southward to Nederland, Texas. Also proposed is an 88-mile, 24-inch pipeline to transport crude oil onward from Nederland to a delivery point in the east Houston area. Through connections with existing terminals in Nederland and Houston, the new pipeline system would provide shippers with the added flexibility of moving onto different crude oil distribution pipelines.

The Commitment Solicitation is for shipper interest in executing binding commitments to transport specified volumes of crude oil on the new pipeline, which is expected to be completed in 2011. The results of the Commitment Solicitation will guide and determine the further development of the proposed joint venture pipeline project.

"The Texas Access Pipeline will expand pipeline infrastructure to increase the reliable supply of crude oil to US refineries," said Patrick D. Daniel, President and Chief Executive Officer, Enbridge Inc. "Producers of crude oil from the Western Canada oil sands, and from the Williston Basin in North Dakota and Montana will benefit from low-cost transportation from the limited U.S. Midwest market to the large Gulf Coast refining market. Gulf Coast refineries and refined products consumers will benefit from access to reliable, competitively priced new sources of supply."

The Solicitation for Binding Shipper Commitment will commence at 5 p.m. CT Dec. 19, 2007. signed transportation service agreements (TSAs). In order to receive the Commitment Solicitation documents, shippers will be required to execute a confidentiality agreement. General information Shippers desiring long-term service will be required to execute and submit completed and about the Commitment Solicitation, as well as a downloadable copy of the confidentiality agreement, is available on the Texas Access Pipeline website at www.texasaccesspipeline.com
